

The Los Angeles Police Department's CENTURION FOOTBALL TEAM is preparing for it's next season of semi-pro football. The Centurions are sworn LAPD police officers who compete in a national football conference, the National Public Safety Football League, against other police and fire agencies in the United States. The Centurions Football Team is a non-profit organization whose goal is to play football to raise money for the BLIND CHILDRENS CENTER of Los Angeles. Through the Centurions efforts, more than $250,000 has been donated to the Center and other charities over the past 31 years. During the 2010 season, an estimated Five Hundred Souvenir Program Books will be distributed at the Centurions' home games. By purchasing an ad in the program book you will advertise your business to hundreds of Centurion fans while supporting young children who are blind or visually impaired.
